

MESA BIKE TOUR
July 9, 2010
WEEK RIDERS

- Plan to arrive at the Toledo Zoo (Spencer Street Parking Lot, behind the Zoo - see map - by 5:30 p.m. Friday, July 9, 2010. M.E.S.A. bus and van will be here too.
- There will be Rotarians at the lot to direct you to your exact parking location. The lot is secured (fenced and patrolled) so your cars will be safe for the week.
- Your bikes will be unloaded from your cars and secured in the M.E.S.A. van for overnight safekeeping in this same lot.
- The M.E.S.A. bus will transport you at approximately 6.00 p.m. to The Oliver House (arriving approximately 6:30 p.m.) where meetings may be held (as prescribed by M.E.S.A. etiquette) and a dinner of hot dogs, hamburgers, etc. will be provided by The Oliver House.
- Within The Oliver House there is a Brew Pub and the delights of their brewing efforts will be available for your enjoyment. State law prohibits serving free beer so there will be a charge for beer.
- Host families have been asked to pick you up and transport you to your sleeping quarters for Friday night by 8:30 p.m. Host family are welcome to come early and join in some of the "party" as well.
- Saturday morning festivities begin at the Toledo Zoo at 8:00 a.m. so ask host families to plan to drop you there by 7:45 a.m. at the main Anthony Wayne Trail Zoo entrance.
- Breakfast will be served to the Week Riders from 8:00 a.m. to 9:15 a.m. at the Arctic Encounter exhibit. There will be Rotarians at the gate to direct you to Arctic Encounter.
- While Week Riders are having breakfast, the M.E.S.A. van driver will bring bikes around to the main gate. Bikes will be taken from van and placed inside the Zoo main entrance.
- While this is happening the Day Riders will be walking their bikes through the Zoo to the main Anthony Wayne Trail Zoo entrance starting point.
- At approximately 9:15 a.m. the Week Riders will leave the Arctic Encounter area and join the Day Riders at the front entry of the Zoo.
- After a brief ceremony and ribbon cutting both groups should be on the road at approximately 9:30 a.m.

RETURN OF ALL WEEK RIDERS

- The ride concludes on Thursday, July 15 in Sylvania.
- The Sylvania Rotary and the M.E.S.A. van and bus will be responsible to return riders to the Zoo where they can load their bikes on their cars and "head for home".

Hope everyone has/had a wonderful time!
